AN ACT

For the relief of Frederick E. Keehn.

October 27, 1971
[S. 654]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Frederick E. Keehn, of Wasco, Oregon, is relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $496.30 representing the amount of an overpayment he received from the United States, as the result of administrative error in determining the number of days of unused leave for which he was entitled to be paid upon his discharge from the United States Navy on October 30, 1968. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Frederick E.
Keehn.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Frederick E. Keehn, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayment referred to in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of any amount appropriated under this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Approved October 27, 1971.
